DISTRICT'S SHIP O' STATE DRIFTS LIKE A DERELICT

Baseball Bee Invades Municipal Building and Stings Score of Officials, Who Desert Offices to See Nation's Vanquished.

The ship of state of the District had no pilot yesterday afternoon, neither was there first mate, second mate, boatswain, nor third mate aboard; the bridge, the cabin, and the quarterdeck were deserted, and like a derelict she drifted.

Many were the deserted desks, and many, likewise, were the reasons given for the absence of twenty-three department heads in the Municipal Building. A few had alibis, but the rest were accused of having forgotten their duties to witness a battle between the Nationals and the Tigers.

The offices of Commissioners Rudolph and Johnston were locked. Commissioner Rudolph has a complete alibi, as he is in Germany. Commissioner Johnston is believed to be out of the city. A messenger guarded the door to Maj. Judson's office, and hinted that Maj. Judson was at a lunk for the new cement grand stand at the baseball park. Ralph Pratt, Waldo Hibbs, and Ralph Lee, secretaries to the Commissioners, were also missing.

Even Dr. Tindall, who receives visitors at his office until dark each week day, was absent, but his clerks swore he was on official business.

Some of the District officials who were absent were Capt. Markham and Capt. Brooke, Assistant Engineer Commissioner; Engineer of Highways Hunt, Engineer of Bridges Bailey, Inspector of Buildings Hacker, Secretary George Wilson, of the Board of Charities, Corporation Counsel Thomas, Assistant Corporation Counsel Stephens, the superintendent of trees and parks, Sealer of Weights and Measures Haskell, Chief Clerk Gargus, of the engineering department, and Dr. Sawtelle, acting health officer, who was out on official business.

Superintendent of Water McFarland was at a fire. Fire Chief Wagner is on his vacation, and Acting Chief Sullivan, Deputy Nicholson, and other office assistants were at the fire.

No conspiracy is thought to have been hatched, but at least one Commissioner and many other District officials will be able to explain, to-day, why the Nationals lost.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

James R. McKee and Family to Spend Month at Bar Harbor—Capt. and Mrs. John Winthrop Wadleigh on Way to Yellowstone Park. Several Parties Sail for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Lukel had a happy celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last evening in their home, at 1710 M street, surrounded by their six children and nine grandchildren, at a large and very handsome reception at 9 o'clock. It was an occasion of double interest and significance, as their youngest grandchild, only five weeks old, was christened after the guest assembled by Rev. Frank Benson, pastor of the Rhode Island Avenue M. P. Church. The infant, who for a long time divided honors with her grandparents last evening, is the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lukel, and was christened Marianna. The baby was greatly admired in a dainty frock of the finest linen and delicate lace. The large size of the room was decorated with palms, ferns, and yellow flowers, both roses and the beautiful golden glow being used in profusion, topped off in each apartment with an American flag, which was also a significant reminder of the auspicious fifty years ago, when the then young couple stood before the altar in the Congress Street Methodist Protestant Church, with the bridegroom's company headed by Capt. A. G. Gifford, were grouped in the amen corner of the church, honored guests. A number of them were among the guests of the wedding, and some of the guests of the wedding were among the guests of the wedding.

The well-preserved bride and bridegroom of fifty years ago were assisted in receiving their guests by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Grimes, who came up from their summer home at Leesburg, Va., for the few days' festivities. Mrs. Grimes was mother of honor at the wedding. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Grimes, and his wife were also in the wedding party. Mrs. Lukel wore a handsome gown of black marquisette, with trimmings of lace and jet, with pearl ornaments. Mrs. T. W. Grimes wore a white dress with a striped chiffon over white silk, with diamonds. Mrs. A. V. Grimes was in white marquisette over white satin, with pearls.

The children of the couple are Mrs. S. Beaght, Mrs. Belle Goffin, Mrs. William Gibson, Mrs. Harry Fox, Mr. R. F. Lukel, and Mrs. E. W. Lukel, all of this city. Mrs. Beaght wore an effective gown of black and white striped silk, with coral; Mrs. Goffin was in white silk, with pearl trimmings; Mrs. Gibson wore white marquisette and lace; and Mrs. Fox was in white chiffon over satin, with lace. Miss Edith Lukel, who assisted at the punch bowl, wore a soft gown of white liberty silk, with touches of pale pink. The dining-room was particularly pretty in its soft yellow trimmings of candle shades, centerpiece of golden glow, and less and bonbons to match. Presiding there were Mrs. Goffin, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Lukel's daughter; Mrs. I. N. Clark, and Mrs. N. E. Cobbs, all of Richmond. Other assistants in the dining-room were Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Harry Yachler. Mrs. James Croft assisted Miss Lukel at the punch bowl. The gifts, which were displayed in the library, formed an imposing collection. Mr. Lukel's associates of the G. A. R. presented a beautiful brooch of pearls and diamonds to Mrs. Lukel, and a gold watch chain with a diamond studded locket to Mr. Lukel. The four daughters of the couple presented a beautiful gold watch and long gold chain to their mother and a diamond sashpin to their father.
